Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 4(e) Other:

First, with respect to claims 1 and 8, applicant has improperly removed limitations from the claims without indicating their removal, e.g., by strikethrough or other designation to indicate an amendment has been made. Specifically, applicant has removed the language "wherein a respective bit rate of one of the divided signals differs from that of another of the divided signals" previously recited at line 7 of claim 1 and at line 6 of claim 8. Additionally, at line 16 of claim 1 applicant has also improperly removed the word "signal" from "the original concatenation signal" without indicating its removal, e.g., by strikethrough.

Second, with regards to improper claim identifiers, claims 3 and 6 have been amended by applicant and should include the identifier "(Currently amended)" and not "(original)". With respect to claim 3, "add" at line 2 has been changed by applicant to "adds" without any indication of the amendment. With respect to claim 6, "send" at line 2 has been changed by applicant to "sends" without any indication of the amendment. In addition to changing the identifier of these claims to "(Currently amended)", applicant must also indicate where an amendment has been made, e.g., by underlining added language and/or crossing out removed language.
